Toronto, ON (October 20, 2019) – GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS, the global authority in record-breaking, presented sixteen impressive runners with fourteen official titles after their successful attempts during the 2019 Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon.

Twenty-two pre-approved runners, ranging from a tennis player to a vegetable to a firefighter, had the opportunity to make history, which coincided with the Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon's inspirational 30th anniversary #ITSYOURMOMENT campaign.

The partnership between Guinness World Records and Canada Running Series also included an on-site adjudicator to verify these incredible attempts instantly.

“It was a pleasure to witness the passion and dedication of all runners at the 2019 Scotiabank Toronto Waterfront Marathon. I am especially delighted to be part of the 30th celebration and watch Guinness World Records titles be broken while these runners make history. Congratulations to all record-holders who are now Officially Amazing™,” said Spencer Cammarano, Guinness World Records Adjudicator.

About Guinness World Records

What’s the fastest game bird in Europe? This was the question that inspired the founding of Guinness World Records back in 1955. Starting with a single book published from a room above a gym, GWR has grown to become a global multi-media brand, with offices in London, New York, Miami, Beijing, Tokyo and Dubai. Today, we deliver world-class content, not just through Books, but via TV shows, Social Media and Live Events. Our in-house consultancy works closely with brands and businesses around the world to harness the power of record-breaking and deliver award-winning campaigns and business solutions. Our ultimate purpose is to inspire people - individuals, families, schools, groups, companies, communities and even entire countries – to read about, watch, listen to and participate in record-breaking. To join this record-breaking community – and find out the answer to that original question – visit guinnessworldrecords.com.
