

Canada Running Series
Equity, Access and Inclusion Policy

Organizers of the Canada Running Series strive to create safe and welcoming events for all interested participants, including accommodations and assistance to address any potential participation barriers.

Declaration of Inclusion

On behalf of the Canada Running Series, the organizers hereby declare an invitation to participate in the event to all interested and willing parties. We hereby declare our intention to create an event that adheres to principles of social equity and inclusion and is open, welcoming, safe, and accessible.

Statement of Accessibility

In accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, Canada Running Series has established a process for accessibility inquiries pertaining to each of the events. Canada Running Series is committed to access for all participants and spectators involved with the events.

Requests and Feedback Mechanisms

To ensure proper communication and to optimize organizer's ability to best meet accommodation requests, requests must be received to Canada Running Series 1 month prior to the event date. All requests for accommodations will be acknowledged within 72 hours.

For these and any other accessibility requests, or for more information, please contact info@canadarunningseries.com.

Canada Running Series is committed to ensuring the best possible experience for all participants & spectators. Participants & spectators can submit feedback regarding the activities and facilities at the event, including responsiveness to accessibility needs, following the link in our Post-Race email and filling out the survey.
