New and Improved TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon Weekend Returns For Full Weekend of Festivities

TORONTO, ON (October 17, 2024) - From October 19th to 20th, Toronto will welcome the return of one of Canada's premier running events, the TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon. The event brings almost 30,000 elite, recreational athletes and charity fundraisers together with more than 100,000 spectators from over 70 countries annually.

As a global event with a local heart, this year's TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon is the 35th edition of the event, bringing decades of historic moments, memorable Olympic qualifiers, and local charity impacts. A pillar of Toronto's annual event roster, the internationally-renowned race is a World Athletics Elite Label event that prides itself on its impacts "beyond the run". The TCS Charity Challenge provides the unique opportunity for participants to customize their race experience by choosing to run in support of over 150 charity partners annually, and has raised over $53 million for charities since 2003.

The TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon has also committed to sustainability efforts through every facet of the event, having been awarded an Evergreen Certification by the Council for Responsible Sport, a distinction held by few marathons in the world. The event's 2024 feature charity partners include Canadian sustainability champions Trees for Life and Trans Canada Trail, and the race offers a Green Bib program in support of these organizations. The Green Bib program allows participants to have a donation made to sustainability charities in lieu of receiving a medal and race shirt, a choice signified by the racer wearing a Green Bib on race day.

With the world-class race weekend and festivities underway, some roads in the city will be temporarily closed as runners, walkers and wheelers hit the pavement, and local businesses, community groups, friends and family choose to join in on the excitement with community events and cheer station competitions along the routes. As always, the TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon works closely with the City of Toronto, Toronto Police, Toronto Transit Commission and City Councillors to minimize disruptions to residents. This year, the 5K event has been moved to Saturday, October 19th, allowing the city to experience a complete weekend of festivities and enable shorter road closures than in previous years.
