

ROAD CLOSURE NOTICE - October 17th to October 19th, 2025

Toronto Gears Up for 2025 TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon Weekend: Citywide Celebrations & Revised Road Closures

TORONTO, ON (October 7, 2025) - From October 17-19, Toronto will once again host Canada's premier running event: the TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon. The internationally renowned event brings together more than 30,000 participants and 100,000+ spectators from over 70 countries, uniting elite and recreational athletes, charity fundraisers and the local community for a weekend that celebrates health, inclusion and city pride.

As a World Athletics Elite Label event, the Canadian Marathon Championship, Ontario Provincial 5K Championship and a generator of $50.3 million for our city, the TCS Toronto Waterfront Marathon is a pillar of Toronto's annual event roster. The 36th edition of the race builds on decades of memorable moments, Olympic qualifiers, and community impacts, while continuing to grow its reputation as a world-class sporting and cultural celebration.

With all the excitement, some roads in the city will be temporarily closed and with the current Canada Post strike preventing notifications from reaching some residents and businesses, organizers Canada Running Series (CRS) want to ensure everyone can plan accordingly to make the most of the weekend-long festivities.

CRS always works closely with the City of Toronto, Toronto Police, the TTC and City Council to minimize disruptions. This year, they've been able to reduce the number of road closures on Saturday, avoid closures during the Friday evening rush hour and accommodate a new start line for Sunday's events, allowing for more efficient road management throughout the weekend.

The 5K event takes place Saturday, October 18, while the full marathon (42.2K) and half marathon (21.1K) take place Sunday, October 19.

A complete list of road closures is provided below. Plus, the race's innovative, interactive RacePoint Maps are available to help navigate the running routes:
